OPEN DATA, DATA JOURNALISM, CIVIC MONITORING AND COHESION POLICY. SINCE 2013 IN ITALIAN HIGH-SCHOOLS

At the School of OpenCohesion (ASOC) is an educational challenge and a Massive Online Open Course designed for high-school students. It promotes the engagement of students in monitoring the effectiveness of EU cohesion policy investments via the use of public open data.

ASOC, implemented successfully in Italy since 2013, uses a partnership with some Regional Administrations to reinforce the project at territorial level.

ASOC will be replicated, with the support of the Commission, during the 2019-2020 school year in the following Member States and regions: Bulgaria, Croatia, Alentejo (Portugal), Catalonia (Spain), Peloponnese, Thessaly and Ionia Nisia (Greece).
